THE total number of automatic cashiers supplied the Government by a Wisconsin concern, and out of which transaction the recent indictment of George W. Beavers grew, was 527. The post-office department paid $150 for the same machines that sold in the open market for $125. A commission of $100 was paid on each machine, and of this sum the agent for the company received $50.

THE Chicago Tribune, which makes a specialty of collecting mortuary statistics, says that 38 deaths occurred Wednesday in various parts of the United States from lockjaw, due to tetanus. All the deaths are the direct result of accidents with toy pistols during the 4th of July celebration. Isn't it about time the toy pistols were prohibited from being sold, borrowed or given away?

THE Danville News says that the INTERIOR JOURNAL will heartily support Messrs. Bell and Hardin. Of course it will. The old lady is getting two old to bolt and wouldn't do so if she could and couldn't if she would. The word bolter is not in her vocabulary. And too, why should she want to bolt such good democrats and splendid gentlemen as Hons. W. Con Bell and Charles A. Hardin are?

THERE'S Mike Sautley! Look at him and behold a democrat! His star for the moment disappears behind the clouds. But only for a moment. It will come again, shining brighter than ever. It is impossible to down a good man, and here is one of the best—Editorial in Friday's Courier Journal.

THE Louisville Times asks this pertinent question, which will more than likely go unanswered: If the Federal office-holders can't and Mr. Bradley and Mr. Willson won't act as chairman of the republican State Campaign Committee, why not give the colored brother a show?

LOUISVILLE wants it all. She will make an effort to secure one or both of the national political conventions next year. Urey Woodson will invite the democratic convention and John W. Yerkes will invite the republican convention.

OUR brother, Mr. W. P. Walton, of the Lexington Democrat, has been appointed by Miss Clara Barton, president of the Red Cross Society, as a member of the Advisory Board. Each State has one representative on the board.

THE total amount subscribed to the Ewen fund is $1,464.75, all of which has been turned over to that good citizen who dared to tell the truth.

Thomas M. Sharp was nominated for representative over Dr. C. W. Mathers by the democrats of Nicholas county.

POLITICAL.

Col. W. L. Scott, republican nominee for representative from Shelby county, announces that he will not support Belknap for governor.

The Winchester Democrat proposes the name of Judge M. C. Sautley as the democrat nominee for judge of the court of appeals from this district. A good suggestion.

Judge Lawrence, an Owensboro republican, in protesting against his county instructing for Belknap, said: "If you endorse Belknap he is beaten 47,000 to start with."

The republican candidates met in Louisville Friday and adjourned to meet about August 1, when, in conjunction with the State Central Committee, they will select a campaign committee.

A call has been issued for a conference of Populists and Fusionists, to be held at Denver July 27-29. The call is issued by National Committeeman Joe Parker, and dissatisfied democrats and republicans are invited to attend.

Considerable soreness is said to have been aroused among the friends of Jno. W. Yerkes in Washington over the ovation given Gov. Bradley when he attempted, as they say, to "Bryanize" the Kentucky republican convention.

Judge M. C. Sautley would make a mighty fine man for the Appellate bench, and his graceful acquiescence in the 13th Judicial settlement will insure him many strong followers for that place should he desire it.—News.

The republican State campaign this fall will be the corporations against the people, says a Louisville dispatch. Belknap, the nominee for governor, is at the head of a number of large corporations and interested in many others. Welsh, for auditor, is a banker; Speight, for secretary of State, is a corporation lawyer and interested in a number of large corporations.

Judge Sautley's manly action in gracefully yielding to the decision and pledging his earnest and able support to the nominees was no more than was expected from that splendid old democrat. He is one of the type that we all love to honor and are proud to claim as a party man. Mr. Owsley gallantly seconded Judge Sautley's pledge, and will be found doing his full part for victory. With this condition of peace and harmony disappears the last hope of the republicans for victory in this district, and they are already expressing their chagrin.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

The republican ticket nominated in Louisville is as follows: For Governor—Morris B. Belknap, of Louisville; for Lieutenant Governor—J. B. Wilbott, of Boyd county; for Treasurer—John A. Black, of Barbourville; for Auditor—George W. Welsh, of Danville; for Attorney General—Judge W. M. Beckner, of Winchester; for Secretary of State—J. C. Speight, of Graves county; for Superintendent of Schools—Livingston McCarty, of Henderson; for Commissioner of Agriculture—Geo. Baker, of Muhlenberg county; for Clerk of Court of Appeals—J. H. Newman, of Monroe county.

HERE AND THERE.

Pope Leo is dead. The wife of Rev. A. C. Graves, of Lebanon, is dead. Six persons were injured in a street car accident at Kansas City.

M. J. Farris made 6,000 bushels of wheat on 300 acres.—Advocate.

A Mercer county girl died from the effects of a prolonged sneezing spell. Will Spillman, of Harrodsburg, sold a bunch of 25 yearling mules to Walter Terhune at $79.50 a head.

A Chicago woman died in her 102d year. She claimed to have seen all the presidents except Washington.

W. H. Jackson, owner of the famous Belle Meade farm, is dead, after an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever.

Thomas McMillan, a carpenter, was murdered and robbed and his body placed upon a railroad track near Bowling Green.

A grand jury was impaneled at Jackson and was charged to investigate the assassination of Dr. Cox and the burning of Ewen's hotel.

Two men were lynched and the sheriff has called for troops to protect other prisoners in Northwestern Wyoming, where a state of terror reigns.

The Rev. W. H. Robinson and W. H. Kirkpatrick narrowly escaped being subjected to mob violence while attempting to stop a ball game in Paducah.

At Brooklyn, East St. Louis, a mob of Negroes broke into a jail in an attempt to lynch a Negro accused of attempted criminal assault on a Negro woman.

Four persons were instantly killed on the Pennsylvania railway at Cincinnati by an incoming train. Two were fatally injured and several others hurt in a collision in the Cincinnati Union depot.

Will Buy It Back.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Craig & Hocker will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Walter Warren sold to J. H. Hutchings a saddle horse for $150.

Twenty-five tons of good mixed hay for sale. Mark Hardin, Stanford.

The European crop report is in general favorable, the conditions being above medium in cereals.

W. A. Tribble reports that his wheat crop averaged 22 bushels. This is probably the best yield in the county.

At the Kirksville fair Bob Woods got the blue on his yearling and Sam J. Embry, Jr., certificate on his mule. Silas Sandidge, of Lincoln county, is here training some high-stepping horses at the fair grounds—Somerset Journal.

FOR SALE.—Span of good draught horses, nine years old, weight 2,500 pounds or more. Albright & Adams, Brodhead, Ky.

R. H. Crow sold to Zack Raines a Red Leaf colt for $150, to J. C. Johnson 20 212 pound hogs at 40c and to another party a cow for $40.

Prospect, Ed P. Carpenter's fine son of Dignity Dare, won the model rig at the Kirksville fair and also in the three-year-old stallion ring.

E. H. Beazley & Co. have received another car load of horses this week. They are selling them cheap and many farmers are buying teams. If you need a work horse, see them.

Robert G. Evans, one of the largest hemp growers in this section, told the Advocate that the crop this year would be almost a complete failure on account of the excessive drouth.

Very few cattle were on the Danville market yesterday and if any sales were made we were not fortunate enough to get hold of them. It was the dullist court Danville has had in years.

There will be a splendid line of attractions at the Lexington Elks Fair this year, the dates being August 10 to 15 inclusive. Besides the sensational railroad collision in which two real live locomotives weighing 30 tons each, will crash together at full speed on the afternoon of Wednesday, the third day, will be De Baugh's 20th Century Band of 35 musicians, a Japanese village, splendid live stock rings, daily racing and other attractions. The premium list is greater this year than ever before. The Elks of Lexington are sparing neither pains nor money in making their big show this year a success.

It is estimated that 10,000 Elks have arrived in Baltimore for the national convention.

UMBRELLAS

Re-covered and repaired and made almost as good as new for a small amount. I can fix your umbrella better than the tramp repairers and for less money. Give me a trial. FRANK ATKINS, Stanford.
